

Vanessa is a talented beauty therapists from Brazil. Like many Brazilians her passion for beauty started earlier. However, life has put her in different roles throughout the years.

Vanessa trained as a nurse technician and has worked for several years assisting with the medical care of patients. She has run her own business too.

After moving to Portugal Vanessa decided to take her beauty therapist career more seriously specialising in nail care, waxing and threading. She is very sweet and super professional.

Basic knowledge of English.

CANDY HANDS